National Politics.

The following pungent letter, from Governor Wall, of New Jersey, to Hon. Montgomery Blair, we take from the New York News. Its rebuke of the ultra abolitionists, who are now the Radical leaders, will, however, be lost upon them:

BURLINGTON, June 24, 1866.

To the Hon. Montgomery Blair:

DEAR SIR: I have this moment read with some interest your Maryland speech, a copy of which I received on Saturday morning. What surprises me, however, is that gentlemen of your national proclivities should ever have been so deceived as to both the origin and object of the late war. The same fell agency is visible at Washington now that was visible at the commencement of the struggle. The same fanatical spirits who were then guiding and directing the storm are guiding and directing still. The present alarming condition of our national affairs is but the logical conclusion from the principles taught so energetically by the leaders of the Republican party; nay, they are only the fulfillment of the predictions made by the founders of that Republic, if the sectional principles of such a party should ever attain ascendancy in this country.

You were constantly wont to attribute to those of us who sternly and consistently opposed the late civil war a lack of patriotism.—How terribly you were mistaken! The men who could dare the most relentless persecution, in the shape of imprisonment, banishment, social ostracism, and defy even death itself in vindication of Constitutional principles, and to save this country from the very present evils of which you complain in your speech, are no more to be charged with a want of patriotism than with lack of firmness of purpose. The infamous conduct of the disunionists in Congress and throughout the country at this very hour is vindicating the sagacity of that little band at the North who so persistently and fearlessly opposed the late wretched civil war, and is confirming the truth of their allegations as to the designs of the Radicals against the Constitution and the Union. "The sober second thought" of the great mass of the people who were so deceived by these disunion leaders, I hope, will soon begin to make itself manifest. The people are rapidly discovering the real character and motives of those who grievously betrayed them, and they will yet rebuke such wickedness as it deserves. The reserve force of the nation will yet come to the rescue of its outraged and imperiled Constitution. The time, rest assured, cannot be far distant "when the penitentiaries shall reclaim their fugitives in office, and these banditti be scourged back to their caverns."

Men who grasp at arbitrary power, who rashly contemn the liberties of their own race in a mad quixotic scheme to give liberty to an inferior race, have played, and are playing, a deep stake; but the more startling and intolerable their short pre-eminence, so much more destructive will be their fall, so much the more exemplary their punishment. Lord Temple once very sagaciously remarked, "that liberty was in many other dangers from itself, besides those which arose from formed designs of destroying it. One of its greatest dangers arises from hypocritical pretences or romantic schemes to restore it on a more perfect plan." Both dangers have threatened us, but more particularly the last.—It was under this hypocritical pretence the late civil was commenced and carried on to its conclusion. It was under this bald pretence, that great constitutional principles were overturned and the liberties of men in the Northern States struck down by the hand of arbitrary power. It is this pretence that justifies the mad legislation which to-day keeps eleven States out of this Union; and is aiming to centralize the powers of this Government. "The romantic scheme to restore liberty on a more perfect plan," has already torn millions of contented slaves from the care and comfort of a mild form of vassalage, and buried them forth vagabonds upon the community, or what is infinitely worse, handed them over to the espionage of the Freedmen's Bureau, whose tenderest mercies are cruel. It was fortunate for this country, and the interests of the coming generations, that an allwise Providence called Andrew Johnson to his present position at the moment he did. Under other auspices, ere this, the well-matured schemes of the radical leaders in Washington would have ripened to perfection, and the dreams of Wilson, Sumner, and Wade would have become frightful realities. "What are all our histories," well asked Oliver Cromwell, "but God manifesting himself that He hath shaken, tumbled down and trampled under foot, whatever He hath not planted?" We have realized this to some extent already.—Some of our radical, far-seeing divines imagined that they discerned in the assassination of Lincoln an interference from on high, by which an overruling Power had removed a man whose temper was too mild, to make way for one of iron will, "whose little finger would be heavier than the loins" of the mild and amiable Lincoln. How vain and short-sighted were such speculations? On the contrary, the way appears to have been opened for Andrew Johnson, that he might rescue the nation from the wicked designs of an uncompromising radicalism, whose only object was and still is the overthrow of our republican institutions.

The great, the absorbing issue now presented to the American patriot, is the restoration of the States in the Union now unrepresented, to all their rights and privileges in the Government under the Constitution. Like Aaron's rod, it swallows for a time all other issues. Partizan prejudices and predilections for a while must be laid aside, in view of that all absorbing issue. Patriotic men of all parties must rally to the side of the President, and defend him from the machinations of the bold, bad men who now bear rule in Congress, and who appear to have adopted as their motto, "After us the deluge." Yours respectfully,

JAMES W. WALL.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Saturday Evening, July 7, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,

JONATHAN WORTH,

OF RANDOLPH.

The Railroads.

The Radical organ of this city is not pleased with the appointments on the railroads, &c.—There are too many secessionists and destructives, and too few Holdenites or strait-sect, alias Radical sore-heads, to please that print. This was to have been expected. It would be impossible for Gov. Worth, or any of his friends, to do anything to please that paper or its Editor. We should regret deeply if Gov. Worth were to try to please that print or its Editor, for then he would be sure to displease four-fifths of the honest and truly loyal people of North Carolina.

Neither Gov. Worth nor his friends have the fear of the Radical organ or its Editor before their eyes. They regard that print and its Editor as sworn foes to North Carolina and her true interests—foes to the early Union and reconciliation of the States—foes to President Johnson and his policy—foes to peace and quietude, and hence the friends of Gov. Worth view that paper with disgust and loathing, and its attempts to injure the loyalty and good reputation of the State with contempt and scorn.

We presume that every sober, sensible, honest man in the State, considers that the desires, wishes and interests of the individual stockholders, in our public works, should be consulted in their management. We apprehend that a Governor, who, of set purpose would, because the State held the largest interest in a public work, go to work in appointing State directors, to defeat the wishes of the majority of the individual stockholders, if he knew their wishes, would be culpable, unless he was convinced that compliance with the wishes of the stockholders would be injurious to the work and to the State. Gov. Worth, we judge, acted as far as he could, upon this principle, and in doing so his course will be approved.

The Governor of the State, in our judgment, has no power to make Presidents or officers for the public works. He appoints directors for the State, and, as far as he can judge, should select them for their competency and qualifications, their local position and other reasons, but we hold, he does simple justice and right, when he looks to the general wishes and interests of a majority of the individual stockholders, in making his selections. For it can hardly be doubted, that a majority of the individual stockholders of a Railroad, or other work, are better judges of the proper persons to manage that particular interest, than a Governor can be.

But what right has the Radical organ to complain, if a majority of the Directors preferred to select men who were known to be active friends of Gov. Worth? What claims had those who had been warm supporters of Gov. Holden, and of strait-sect principles, upon Gov. Worth or his friends, unless they were known to be superior railroad men to those who had for years preceded them? What two railroad men in the State are equal to, or superior to, Dr. Hawkins and Mr. Whitford? Why were they turned out of office, although the Stockholders unanimously preferred them? Were they disloyal to the Government? Had they not submitted in good faith to the terms of the President? Were they not good citizens, submissive to the laws, and had they not sworn to be loyal? Mr. Whitford had already been pardoned, if we recollect rightly, and Dr. Hawkins was pardoned a short time after he was forced out of the Presidency of the Raleigh and Gas. R. R. Were they turned out for anything else but to gratify Gov. Holden's political malice against them? Was it for anything else but because he knew he could not use them for his purposes? Does Gov. Holden charge them with disloyalty? Who believes it?

Skies Brightening.

We conversed on yesterday with an intelligent gentleman, whose political information and public service enable him to judge correctly, who has spent some weeks in Washington and in the Northern States, who assures us that the conservative people of the North are rallying to the support of the President and the Constitution. He says the deep, strong, groundswell of popular opinion is moving in that direction, and that the friends of Constitutional Union are becoming sanguine of success.

The proposition to hold the Convention in Philadelphia on the 14th. August next is meeting with general favor among Conservatives of all parties, North and South, and he gives it as his opinion that all the Southern States should be represented in that Convention. He says the Northern Conservatives urge and invite Southern Conservatives. He fully accords with us, that our wisest and most prudent men should be sent, and that our people should move early in the matter. Let the ball be started at once.

As there is so little time to act, we propose that citizens of the First Congressional District, who can possibly spare the time, meet on Wednesday the 25th of July, at Edenton, to select two gentlemen from that district; that the citizens of the 3d Congressional District meet the same day at Goldsboro; those of the 3rd District, at Fayetteville on same day; those of the 4th District, at Raleigh on same day; those of the 5th District, at Greensboro', same day; those of the 6th District, at Salisbury on the 27th, and those of the 7th District, at Asheville on the 28th of July, and that the entire delegation meet in Raleigh on the 11th of August, to select four delegates for the State at large. What say the press and the people to this proposition?

The "loyal few," so-called, in Wayne.

A correspondent of the Radical organ in this City furnishes that paper with an account of a meeting in Goldsboro on the 4th. inst. From the fact that we have seen no allusion to the "meeting" aforesaid in the News, we infer that it was of the nature of a secret conclave,—the participators being doubtless unwilling to expose the paucity of their numbers to a curious public gaze.

Indeed, we are told by the correspondent that the meeting was composed of a "few" loyal citizens. From a review of the proceedings and the names of the actors in the meeting, it looks as if one Rev. Hope Baine had acted after the style and fashion of the Ex-Provisional Governor in Washington. That numerous dignitary and individual, it seems, has resolved himself into a "conference," and the Rev. Hope Baine, almost alone, resolved himself into a "meeting."

The following were two of the resolutions adopted by the loyal "few." It is only necessary, without comment, to place them side by side:

Resolved, 4. That should Gov. Holden see fit to become a candidate in the approaching gubernatorial canvass, we pledge ourselves to a most cordial support of him in preference to all others.

Resolved, 6. That whilst the declarations of the President of the United States meet our unqualified approval, yet we regret to say that his acts appear to us as rather ambiguous; pardoning and restoring rebels to power is not the way to make treason odious—and we, who, through the rebellion, have suffered for our loyalty, feels a deep anxiety for what may be our future status amidst the malignants which surround us.

The most remarkable feature of the meeting remains to be told. We are informed by the correspondent that, after the adoption of the resolutions, "Mr. Baine was then moved from the chair and Mr. Exum Holland moved thereto!" Were they "toted?" Mr. Baine and Mr. Holland must be very small men, or the job could'nt have been performed in that meeting,—that is, without a stretch of physical exertion which, in these hot days of July, is utterly unconstitutional.

The object of Mr. Baine's being thus "moved from the chair" was to enable that gentleman to make a speech. We presume that Mr. Holland could'nt, and there was no one else present to perform that important and indispensable part of a "meeting." We take it for granted that, after Mr. B. had concluded, he was "moved," like Sawney, "back agen."

The whole affair was most "moving," and we confess to a difficulty in repressing our "pheelinks."

The Radical Amendment.

The position of Gov. Holden on the new amendment to the Constitution of the United States, as proposed by the Radical Congress, is not dubious. His Radical organ need not attempt either to screen his position or crawl out of the dilemma into which he has placed himself.

It cannot be denied that he urged warmly upon the State Convention to adopt the Howard amendment, even before the Congress passed it, as the best the South could hope to get. Nor has he publicly expressed any disapprobation of that measure. So far from it, he has endorsed it both in his Radical organ and in Washington.

Nor is the position of the Sentinel doubtful. We have not only opposed the Howard amendment, but all other amendments to the Constitution designed to degrade and humiliate the South, disfranchise our people, or to change the organic character of the Government. We shall continue to employ all legitimate efforts to defeat the measure. If it should be adopted, as we have time and again said, we shall submit to it and to all the laws of the land as a good citizen, but as long as there was hope, we should continue to use all lawful efforts to effect its repeal. Negro suffrage, the disfranchisement of our people, or any change in the Constitution to centralize power at Washington, we have always opposed and shall oppose.

Affairs in North Carolina.

Gov. Holden, who is here, looking after his confirmation to a foreign mission, says that affairs in North Carolina are in a very dubious state. No original Union man is safe in life and property. Since Fullerton and Steedman made their recent tour through the State, the people have been worse in their belligerent feelings toward the Government.

So says the special correspondent of the New York Tribune.

Now we ask the organ of Gov. Holden in this city, if Gov. Holden authorized the above statement? If so, we denounce him as a libeller of the people of North Carolina. We challenge and defy proof—an iota of proof, to sustain either of the above statements or insinuations. Our people are adverse, nay, if you choose, hostile to Radicalism and Radical men, North or South, but we deny that original Union men, who do not commit outrages against the law, are more unsafe in life or property than any other class of good citizens. Nor are our people more hostile to the government. The whole thing is a fabrication, as Gov. Holden knows.

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 4, 1866.—The Honorable Barnwell Rhett, a distinguished citizen of this State, was shot yesterday afternoon, while going to his plantation, near Charleston. He received two loads from a double-barrel shotgun, one load breaking his arm, the other penetrating his side and entering his lungs. About twenty minutes after receiving the wounds he fell from his horse and died. It is not known definitely who the murderer was, but it is supposed to be a negro who had expressed strong animosity against the family.

The Western Congressmen give assurances that in regard to the prohibitive tariff the West will take a stand with the South. Give the Pennsylvanians full swing now; "the pendulum," as Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, declared, "will swing back with the greater force hereafter."

Gen. Joe Hooker is still suffering from an attack of paralysis. The War Department proposes to relieve him from command at New York, and give him a long leave of absence. No objection has been made.

AN ORDINANCE

FOR EXCHANGING THE STOCKS OF THE STATE FOR BONDS ISSUED BEFORE THE YEAR ONE THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED AND SIXTY-ONE.

WHEREAS, The destruction and depreciation of taxable property in North-Carolina, arising out of the late unhappy war has greatly increased the proportion borne by the public debt to the means which the State possesses for its payment; and, whereas, the people of North-Carolina are solicitous fully to discharge their just obligations at the earliest possible moment in any manner that shall be acceptable to their creditors; whereas, further, the stocks, liens, and other claims upon the railroad companies and other corporations, are proceeds of the bonds of the State, issued in great part before the twentieth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and now outstanding; and, whereas, due regard being had as well to economy and other grave public interests as to the rights of public creditors, it were good policy to exchange for the principal of such bonds, the stocks and other property above mentioned, if such exchange can be made at par; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, That the Public Treasurer shall advertise, in such newspapers as he may select, and invite proposals for an exchange of the principal of any bonds issued by the State prior to the twentieth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, for certificates of stock and other interests held by the State in various corporations; such bids shall be opened by the Treasurer upon some day (of which he shall give due notice to them) in presence of the Governor of the State and the Comptroller of public accounts, and it shall be his duty to accept those terms which may be most advantageous for the State: Provided, That in no event shall any of the said stocks or other property be exchanged for less than their par value; and any premiums which may be obtained upon such exchange shall be applied either to the extinguishment of coupons or other interest (if any) due upon the particular bonds accepted in exchange, or to a further discharge of the principal due upon other such bonds; or in case such premiums be fractional in regard to such bonds or interest, it may be, as an alternative, at the discretion of the Treasurer, be paid in currency into the Treasury and charged to the public fund.

SEC. 2. As soon as may be practicable after the acceptance of any bid, the Public Treasurer shall receive the bonds offered in exchange, and in the presence of the Governor and Comptroller shall cancel the same; it shall also be his duty to transfer the stocks and execute such conveyances of the other interests hereinbefore mentioned as shall be deemed necessary; such conveyances to be in a form approved of by the Governor and the Attorney General: Provided, however, That the interest to be acquired by any such purchaser or assignee of any stock now held by the State, shall not be other than that of the holders of a like amount, in the general stock of the several and respective corporations in which the State may be a corporator.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller to take a minute of what may be done by the Public Treasurer in the premises, and to make therefrom such entries in the books of his office as may secure a just accountability on the part of the Treasurer because of the transactions hereinbefore mentioned.

SEC. 4. The Public Treasurer shall make special reports upon the subject of this ordinance to the General Assembly at every session, and this ordinance shall be subject to repeal or modification by the General Assembly.

(Ratified in Convention the 16th day of June, A. D., 1866.)

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAMES H. MOORE, Secretary,
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

IN RELATION TO THE DEPOSIT AND PUBLICATION OF THE ORDINANCES AND RESOLUTIONS OF THE CONVENTION.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the people of the State of North Carolina in Convention assembled, That the Secretary of this Convention deposit in the office of Secretary of State, for safe keeping, all the ordinances and resolutions passed by the Convention having the force and effect of laws; and the Secretary of State shall cause the following ordinances and resolutions to be published:

"An ordinance repealing the provisions of section ninth of an act of the General Assembly, entitled "An act concerning negroes and persons of color or mixed blood, and for other purposes."

"An ordinance concerning the crime of assault with intent to commit a rape."

"An ordinance concerning widows, who have qualified as executrix to the last will and testament of their deceased husbands."

"An ordinance for exchanging the stocks of the State for bonds issued before the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one."

"An ordinance to change the time of elections in North Carolina, and for other purposes."

"An ordinance extending the time for the settlement of the public taxes by the Sheriffs and Tax-collectors of this State."

"An ordinance to change the jurisdiction of the Courts and the rules of pleading therein."

"The Constitution of North Carolina as adopted by this Convention" and "the ordinance submitting the same for ratification or rejection;" in the following named newspapers—Standard and Sentinel, Raleigh, and he is hereby authorized to contract for such publication at reasonable rates; the expense thereof shall be paid as other public printing, and it shall be sufficient for him to furnish one certified copy only, (for which he shall be paid the same fee as is now allowed him for certifying the acts of the General Assembly) to one of the newspapers, and a printed copy to the others.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That the Secretary of State be required to contract for the printing of one thousand copies of the Constitution as adopted by the Convention, and the ordinance submitting the same for ratification or rejection, which he shall distribute among the several Counties of the State according to their white population.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained, That all laws or parts of laws coming in contact with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

[Ratified in Convention this 25th. day of June, A. D., one thousand, eight hundred and sixty-six.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAMES H. MOORE, Secretary,
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE,

TO CHANGE THE TIME OF ELECTIONS IN NORTH-CAROLINA, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Delegates of the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, That all elections for Governor of the State of North Carolina, members of the General Assembly, and all other elections, now required by law to be held on the first Thursday in August, shall hereafter be held on the third Thursday in October, under the same rules, regulations and restrictions, as are now prescribed by law.

SEC. 2. That hereafter, until the first session of the General Assembly after the year eighteen hundred and seventy-one, the House of Commons shall be composed of members elected from the counties in the following manner, viz: The counties of Alleghany, Brunswick, Camden, Cherokee, Clay, Chowan, Currituck, Gates, Greene, Hertford, Hyde, Jackson, Jones, Duplin, Lenoir, Onslow, Pasquotank, Perquimans Polk, Richmond, Tyrrell, Warren, Washington, Watauga, Yancey, Henderson, Transylvania, Alamance, Alexander, Anson, Ashe, Beaufort, Bertie, Bladen, Burke, Cabarrus, Caldwell, Carteret, Caswell, Columbus, Davie, Edgecombe, Franklin, Gaston, Halifax, Harnett, Haywood, Lincoln, Macon, Madison, Martin, McDowell, Montgomery, Nash, Northampton, Person, Pitt, Stanly, Stokes, Wilson, and Mitchell, shall elect one member each. The counties of Buncombe, Catawba, Cleveland, Craven, Cumberland, Forsyth, Granville, Iredell, Johnston, Mecklenburg, Moore, Robeson, New Hanover, Rockingham, Rowan, Rutherford, Sampson, Surry, Union, Wayne, Yadkin, Chatham, Davidson, Orange and Wilkes, shall elect two members each. The counties of Wake, Randolph and Guilford, shall elect three members each.

SEC. 3. That all laws in contravention of this ordinance, be and they are hereby repealed; Provided nevertheless, that in case the Constitution be not ratified by the people, this ordinance shall have no effect, except that the elections shall be held at the time designated, and shall be held under the law as it existed in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-one, save that the County of Harnett may vote for a member as heretofore provided.

SEC. 4. Be it further ordained, That nothing in this ordinance contained shall be so construed as to restrict the General Assembly hereafter from regulating the time of holding said elections.

Ratified in Convention the 20th day of June, A. D., 1866.

E. G. READE, President.
JAMES H. MOORE, Secretary.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

For the Sentinel.

Lieutenant Governor.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Among the names mentioned in connection with the office of Lieutenant Governor, on the ticket with our present worthy Governor, there is one which the people in this section of the State would be delighted to support. I refer to Wm. A. Wright, Esq., of New Hanover. Mr. Wright has always been one of the most conservative men in the State, one of our ablest lawyers, and a pure-minded, high-toned, honorable gentleman. He would dignity any office in North Carolina. I do not know whether he would accept the position, but the State at this time needs the services of its best citizens, and I think we have the right to demand them, except in cases where the personal sacrifice would be too great. Mr. Wright's qualifications for the position are unquestionable. Decided abilities, pleasing address, and a suavity of manners that would disarm opposition, render him peculiarly fit to preside over a deliberative assembly. As the East is entitled to the representative, I know of no one better qualified for the position than he. Never a party or a sectional man, he would bring to the discharge of its duties great ability, unwearied industry and spotless integrity.

CLARENDON.

Wilmington, July 4th, 1866.

[Every man or woman in the State, who knows Mr. Wright, will endorse the above. But among so many good old conservative Whigs and Democrats named for the place, who is to make the choice? We repeat our suggestion, that the gentlemen who have been named for that office, of both the old parties, should meet in this city on the 22d. of August next, if the Constitution shall be ratified, and make a selection and recommend him to the people of the State. We venture that a selection made by those gentlemen would receive the support of all the friends of President Johnson's policy.—EDS. SENTINEL.]

[Correspondence of the Sentinel.]

OXFORD, N. C., July 5th, 1866.

Messrs. Editors:—We have just gotten over the excitement of Commencement week at the O. F. College, which College is also O. K. But we haven't gotten over the excitement produced upon our feelings by the young ladies, who are free for a few weeks from the restraints of school. We feel, too, that it is holyday. The exercises of the Commencement were interesting and highly entertaining; we did not note particulars, being particularly attentive to a particular lady. But everybody was pleased, and certainly we were.

We are to have a pic-nic and party on the 10th., and would be glad to see yourself and all the rest of our friends on that day. We didn't have any fourth of July, but somehow the butter-milk and corn-bread was very good at dinner, and maybe the cow or the cook knew it was the good old day.

The mortality amongst the negroes of our County is daily increasing. Whilst the whites are unusually healthy, we find that the darkies are dying rapidly, and, what is strange, Messrs. Editors, their own relatives seem to care nothing for them. In some cases the survivors can scarcely get help to bury the dead.

There is no election news. The U. S. Tax Collector is in town. There is also a case of small pox. Hoping you are better off, we remain, yours, &c. ONE OF THE BOYS

The New York News contains some advance pages from the history of "The Lost Cause," by Mr. E. A. Pollard,—which are not likely to excite any additional interest in behalf of the volume, now soon to appear. Mr. Stephens is denounced as an "elaborate demagogue," exacting, conceited, without consistency, or courage. President Davis is referred to as "weak and bombastic" in his addresses, as "blinded by his natural temper," of "a powerful self-conceit," and with the "fillet of vanity upon his eyes."—In the account of the evacuation of Richmond, the whole conflagration is charged to the Confederate military authorities, no allowance being made for the houses fired by the thieves,—and it is spoken of as a "fitting souvenir of the imprudence and recklessness of the departing administration." If this is the key-note to the book, Mr. Davis could not ask a more unfriendly historian.

In the description of the scenes of the evacuation,—which is written graphically and spiritedly,—the then President of the City Council, a very worthy and excellent citizen, is named apparently only to be sneered at as "an illiterate grocer of the name of Sanders," while Mr. Mayo is introduced as "chewing tobacco defiantly."—These things scarcely rise to the dignity of history; and certainly Southern people do not wish to see even the acknowledged faults or foibles of men who, however humble, were true to them, pilloried without necessity, and especially in a Southern book.—Richmond Enquirer

Governor Curtin has appointed Samuel P. Bates, LL. D., to the position of State historian, in accordance with the act of Assembly of 1865, authorizing the appointment, and appropriating five thousand dollars to the work of collecting and writing a complete history of the Pennsylvania regiments in the service of the United States during the rebellion.

DIED.

In Warrenton, N. C., on Sunday, the 10th. ult., after a short and severe illness, HENRY GARRETT GOODLOE, in the 54th. year of his age.

Mr. GOODLOE had been long and favorably known in the community in which he ended his days on earth. Governed by a high sense of honor in his intercourse among men, generous and liberal hearted, and of unquestioned integrity, he was highly respected for his many noble traits of character.

He was a member of the Episcopal Church, and also of the ancient order of "Free and accepted Masons," to both of which he was warmly attached, and much esteemed by his brethren. A faithful friend, kind husband, affectionate father, he has left an interesting family and many friends to mourn their loss.

But He who has called him hence can not err. May "He so teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom." H.

Per diem and mileage 1st Session	$19,434.20
do do 2d. Session	30,422,00
Total	$49,856,20

This does not, of course, include stationery, lights, printing, advertising, and miscellaneous expenditures.

BY ORDER of the Secretary of War, the Court Martial which has lately been in session in this city, for the trial of attaches of the Freedmen's Bureau, has been adjourned for two months.

TWO NEGRO soldiers, belonging to the 37th. U. S. Colored Troops, were immediately killed, on the 4th inst., by the unexpected discharge of a piece of artillery in the garrison at Smithville.

WE COMMENCE, to-day, the publication of the ordinances of the late Convention.

CONFEDERATE DEAD AT CHARLESTOWN, VA.—We have been favored by a kind lady-friend of Charlestown, Va., with a paper containing an interesting account of the memorial observances in that town on the 27th ult. The exercises were of the most affecting and appropriate character, and were such as to reflect honor upon those who participated.

We may remark, in this connection, that there is no community in the South more greatly distinguished for refinement and hospitality than that of Charlestown; and we may also add that few among the noble women of the South have been more active and untiring in charitable labors, during or since the war, than the one to whom we are indebted for the account in question.

The following are the names of the North Carolina dead buried at Charlestown. Their graves were crowned with floral honors, on the day alluded to. They have, besides, been handsomely sodded, and marked by head and foot boards, painted white, and inscribed legibly with the names, company and regiment of the deceased:

Capt. W T Poole, co E, 14th N. C., Raleigh; R McCreary, co F 15th N. C; Isaac Cordy, co I, 23rd N. C; Capt. J Joiner, co E, 27th N. C; J Gillespie, co I, 18th N. C; ———Brinson, co I, 3rd N. C; W Hildreth, do; C Rogers, co C, do; W C Taylor, co D 14th N. C; E R Bishop, co C 2nd N. C; Lt. F M Graham, co C, 57th N. C; J. F. Morley, co H, 12th N. C; I Grag ston, co I, 37th N. C; E A Caller, co I, 21st; D E Chandler, 15th; Corp. L J Simmons, co E 12th; W M Barnes, co H, 12th; B H Gardner, do; W W Griffith, co G, 14th; H S Rawley, do; Sergt. Newkirk, co E, 31st; M Stanford, 6th; J B Beach, co E 12th; W C Mitchell, co F, 53rd; E B Mendenhall, co B, 28th; and W H Johns, 16th.

THE FOURTH IN CHARLOTTE,—SENSIBLE FREEDMAN.—The white population of Charlotte made no demonstration in honor of the 4th. of July. The negroes, however, were out with banners flying and drums beating. The Times gives the following account of one of the addresses upon the occasion:

"A very sensible and respected man—John Gundry by name,—took the stand, and, we are informed by one who was present, stated that in his opinion the colored man had not been benefitted by the sudden act of emancipation. That he was not prepared for liberty; that he lacked eminently the qualities that enabled him to take care of himself; that those ignorant negroes, who prated about equal rights, did not know what it meant; that if the negro wished to advance himself in the scale of being, he must go to work and work earnestly and faithfully; that idlers and hangers on about the corners of the streets should be made to follow some honest employment; that he must be respectful to the whites; that his old master, and those with whom he was raised, are his best friends—and his future elevation and prosperity depend upon his own industry, and the manner in which he acts, to retain the esteem and confidence of the dominant race.

This man, though a slave up to the collapse, enjoys the reputation of being an honest, faithful christian, and the whole tenor of his remarks was characterized by good sense and practical ideas—and that is the reason why we notice it in our columns."

It is stated that Senator Lane's suicide was the effect of mental aberration, partly caused by charges of corruption made by Northern papers against him. He must have grown more sensitive than formerly.

Dr. Ben. Butler, Major-General of the Massachusetts "flat-foots," is making up his staff.—If they are chips of the old block, they may be safely set down as "poor sticks."

It is positively asserted in New York papers that First Assistant Postmaster General Randall will succeed Secretary Harlan in the Interior Department in a few weeks.

A Cry for Help.

We must beg pardon of our fair correspondent of Harnett, for publishing the following private letter to the Senior Editor. Nothing could surprise her more than to see it in print; but it tells so well its own sorrowful tale, it so fully reveals the pressing need of the poor widows and helpless orphans of this State and of the South, that we cannot withhold it from the public.

In every county in the South, the same bitter wail comes up. What our excellent friend says of her own neighborhood is true of every other in the South. She and her neighbors are doing what they can, but they need help.

We ought to have an association in every County to help these suffering people who have so strong a claim upon our charities. We approve of Memorial Associations, but no higher appreciation of our brave Confederate dead can be shown, than a material and continued remembrance of their suffering widows and orphans.

We showed the following letter to a venerable friend, who was so touched by it, that he handed us a portion of his lean purse to be sent to our lady friend to help. We beg all who read it to do likewise. We will take pleasure in forwarding any amount sent us for that object to her. We know that it will be properly appreciated.

July 4th., 1866.

MY DEAR SIR:—Can you suggest no plan by which the poor of this neighborhood could be assisted? Since my return home, I hear so much of suffering that I cannot sit quietly and not try to do something to alleviate the condition, at least, of the families of the Confederate soldiers. I will give you a case:—Mrs. W., a few miles from us, a soldier's widow, with eight children, all small, have a horse which she is trying to make a crop with. We heard they were suffering, sent for her, and her report is, that she has had only one bushel of corn for four months, has lived on greens, with a very little meat, and nothing else. Her horse is fed on grass. Now, this is a case not of the majority, by any means, but of many, and that class who are better off have a bare sufficiency of provisions and cannot, therefore, help their poorer neighbors. As to money, there is none.

There is a great over-sight abroad in the land among that class who are making great parades over the dead bodies of our soldiers, now quietly sleeping in their graves. I think it is all right when we are able, but it strikes me that the first and greatest honor to them, would be a kindly interest in their wives and little ones.—Without this, all the monuments and epitaphs that could be raised or written would be sheer mockery.

I was much in hopes that a small portion of the Baltimore fund would reach this people.—There is nothing could afford me half the pleasure as the ability to assist all that are in want; but this may never be. I will at least do what I can. I have several times had it suggested to my mind to write to some one of those active Baltimoreans, giving a history of things as they are, and asking aid for a few of the worst cases, with some name to whom they could refer for my honesty of purpose, &c. What do you think? For myself I could not do this, but for others I can. The fact is, I cannot enjoy the sufficiency that I have, while I know there is suffering around me. I have already written too much.

Yours, &c., &c.

GOV. HOLDEN AT WORK.

WHO ARE THE DELEGATES?

Terms of Restoration for North Carolina.

[Special Dispatch to the New York Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, July 3, 1866.

A delegation of North Carolinians is here anxious to ascertain upon what terms that State can be restored. Mr. Thaddeus Stevens informed them that they must adopt the Constitutional amendment, and that it would also be necessary for Congress to pass an enabling act by a two-third vote, setting forth who in the new State shall participate in a Convention to form a new Constitution.

On being requested to designate who should thus be recognized as competent to reconstruct the State, the delegation conferred together, and to-day sent to Mr. Stevens the following draft of a necessary section for the enabling act:

"No one shall be eligible to a seat in the Convention or permitted to vote for delegates thereto, or upon the ratification of the Constitution that the Convention shall submit to the people, who at any time before the rebellion, as an officer of the United States, or of the State in other capacity, had taken an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and subsequently thereto voluntarily engaged in the rebellion, or intentionally gave aid and comfort thereto, or who has held under the so-called Confederate Government the position of President, Vice-President, member of the cabinet, member of either branch of Congress, Judge of the civil Courts, foreign agent, or officer of the army above the grade of Colonel, or of the navy above the grade of Lieutenant, or the office of Governor, Secretary of State, or Treasurer of the State, while in rebellion, or who resigned any position under the United States and took part in the rebellion, or who at any time voluntarily engaged in molesting, restraining, threatening, or injuring any citizen, his family, or estate, because of his opposition to the rebellion, or because of his efforts in behalf of the Union, unless it shall be made to appear that such person ceased to aid the rebellion and exerted himself for a restoration of the Union before the 1st. day of January, 1865."

Gov. Holden is the only Radical North Carolinian known to be at Washington. If there be a delegation, it is self-appointed and misrepresents the Union men of the State.—[EDS. SENTINEL.

Decision under the Civil Rights Bill,—Restoration of a stolen Statue.

BALTIMORE, July 6.

Judge Bowie, Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, has rendered an important decision under the Civil Rights bill in the case of beating a negro. It was contended by counsel that, according to the laws of Maryland, a negro was not a competent witness against a white man. The magistrate decided that said law was null and void, having been abrogated by the Civil Rights bill, and required bail. This the defendant refused to give and he was committed.

Application was made to Judge Bowie for a writ of habeas corpus, which he declined to grant, giving a written opinion sustaining the magistrate. He admitted that there were doubts as to the constitutionality of the Civil Rights bill in other points, yet, not seeing clearly a breach of the Federal Constitution on the point in this case and following usage and the decision of the highest Courts, he was bound to assume that Congress had not violated its Constitutional obligations or passed an unconstitutional act.

The prisoner was remanded to custody.

The statue of Gen. Washington, taken from the Virginia Military Institute by Gen. Hunter, in his raid up the Valley two years ago, was sent back yesterday per the National Express Co., to Lexington.

Convention of Southern Disunionists.

We are informed by the organ of the Radical party, that it is contemplated by the earnest dis-union men of the South, "who feel that they have been basely betrayed by Andrew Johnson, to call a convention at an early day, which will be attended by all who steadily adhere to the principles announced by Andrew Johnson himself during his great campaigns against the rebels." He adds, that this "great meeting will be one of the most imposing events of the campaign, and will contribute an invincible element to the National Union party."

We are delighted at this. True, we have had a State Convention already of this party in Virginia, composed mainly of John Minor Botts, but no other Southern State has yet been able to summon sufficient loyalty to follow the lead of the "Ferrets" of Virginia. We should suppose, however, that Parson Brownlow, of Tennessee, could constitute a State Convention, and Holden, of North Carolina, another, who could meet and appoint themselves delegates to this Southern National Union Convention of loyal citizens of the South. By all means, let us have the convention. We are anxious to see the mustering of the Ferrets in the day time; and though the eyes of these vermin are proverbially unable to sustain the light of the sun, still we suppose they might venture out in the twilight of evening, or the haze of a rainy day.—Lynchburg News.

Have we a National Disease?

S. D. Wallace, Esq., President of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, [Aug. 30, 1865,] says "It has been said that Dyspepsia is our national disease. However this may be, it caused me, long and severe suffering. Providentially a friend furnished me with a few boxes of the HEPATIC PILLS, and the use of them has perfected a cure. In my family they have been used frequently with eminent success. Among my acquaintance, many cases originating from diseased liver, have been relieved and cured by them. I regard them as an invaluable medicine, and take pleasure in forwarding this voluntary tribute."

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the [so called] remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated! This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disenfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

IS a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for disease. Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:

Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.

Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this Sarsaparilla, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood and are often soon cured by this Extract of Sarsaparilla.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disordered Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.
